DEPUTY COMMISSIONER

F.DO/2015/KVS(BPL)

Dated: 02/11/2015

Dear Principals,

Our image is the pacemaker of our heart, our mind and our soul. To save it, let us reactivate our successful instinct until the success becomes part of us, until it hypnotizes us - for, after all, success is a form of self hypnosis. Let us really work hard to banish failure, to exterminate its seeds from our Vidyalayas. Work hard is, however, not easy. But we can do it, once mind, heart and soul come together for a cause, that is noble like 100% pass result.

War is hellish and if our mind is deeply entrenched in negative concepts like failure, we'll have, then, to struggle fiercely to win battle. But it is a battle worth winning.

So that we can live creatively - with joy. So that we can laugh and sing and walk the streets proudly in broad daylight.

Let us strengthen, therefore, our self image through achieving success; it shall inspire us to move forward into a more vital way of life.

Believe in ourselves, that is the best pacemaker of all.

Let us remember to live creatively, we must win this war in our mind. Let us not give up at all. Let us keep fighting, and we'll win.

The secret of successful living is to rise above failures to good moments. This is the key concept to forget past mistakes and failures, to stop grieving over them, to have compassion for human fallibility. Then, unburdened with failure, you can step out determinedly into the world of success, seeing yourself at your best, formulating goals, and bringing out into the game of life your success instincts.

I suggest you to always say to yourself: 'I'll concentrate on the confidence of past successes, not on my past failures. I deserve the good things in life. I am the captain of my ship, and I'll steer my mind to a productive goal of 100% pass result'. Fill your mind with this, see it, feel it, grab hold of success picture and hold it in your mind. Then it's there present for you.

Please note the success (success of children) builds your own image and self respect because people of success are most beloved and respected all around. Such persons are precious. So, create it.

Yours sincerely,

(Isampal)
